Hymnal No. 363

The Month of October is dedicated to the Holy Angels. We praise Almighty God for the gift to each one of us of a Holy Guardian that accompanies us from our birth to death. Whose only duty is to pray and protect us from harm and lead us to Christ.

For those of our parishioners who are ‘social distancing’ at this time, the pews in the St. Joseph aisle are reserved for your use. Also, at the time of Holy Communion, please allow those in social distancing to approach the altar rail first.

Bible Study this Wednesday after the Mass at 5:30 PM.

Vestry Meeting next Sunday after Mass

The National Church assessment is due to the Synod in late October. If you can, please designate $30.00 for this yearly tithe, and we will present one check for this collection.

Pray for the peace of our nation, the cessation of sickness, and the conversion of all people to Christ.

Flower donations for the Feast of All Saints/All Souls will be collected for November 1. Also, All Souls envelopes are available to remember all the Faithful Departed for the month of November are next to the bulletins.

Envelops for flower donations are available at the entrance to commemorate an anniversary, remember a loved one, or celebrate a life event.

Acts of Adoration during Holy Communion:
*Jesus, my Lord and my God. All my love to Thee, my God!
