The Month of September is dedicated to the Holy Cross. We venerate the Sign of Triumph on which salvation was won by the death of Our Savior.

For those of our parishioners who are ‘social distancing’ at this time, the pews in the St. Joseph aisle are reserved for your use. Also, at the time of Holy Communion, please allow those in social distancing to approach the altar rail first.

Bible Study immediately after 5:30 PM Mass on Wednesday.

We are preparing cookie trays for our police departments in time for Michaelmas. Please bring baked goods to the church by this Friday, September 25, in order for the trays to be prepared for delivery.

The National Church assessment is due to the Synod in late October. If you can, please designate $30.00 for this yearly tithe, and we will present one check for this collection.

Pray for the peace of our nation, the cessation of sickness, and the conversion of all people to Christ.

Envelops for flower donations are available at the entrance to commemorate an anniversary, remember a loved one, or celebrate a life event.

Acts of Adoration during Holy Communion:
Jesus, my Lord and my God. All my love to Thee, my God!
